Deputy Chief Retires

According to Fire Chief Craig Weston Deputy Chief Mark Weston will retire from the Carver Fire Department in June. Not only can no one ever replace him no one will, at least not for the time being. In a surprise bid to prevent rumors from spreading and assure effective communication and continuity Chief Weston made the announcement at the Selectmen's meeting on Tuesday Jan 27. The people of FixCarver.com applaud Weston's decision. The leadership of the Carver Fire Department placed the needs of the community above narrower self interest. From the top down to the newest recruit the fire department has earned our respect.
