ZBA Board Member Jim Nauen Asks Bob Belbin if he should drop his pants now

(Fixcarver apologizes to the Carver Planning Board, it's members and staff. We unintentionally slurred the Board by identifying Jim Nauen as a planning board member. We make every effort to provide accurate information but every na uen again one gets by you. Our sincerest apology.)

Carver resident Robert Belbin attended a Zoning Board of Appeals site visit on Saturday January 7, 2012. Belbin notified board members and the public of his intention to make a video recording of the meeting as required by the open meeting law. According to Belbin and a video clip provided by Belbin, Nauen responded “should I drop my trousers for you?”

Belbin complained to the Chairman attorney Steven Gray of the ZBA who according to Belbin stated well alright we’ll address it. Belbin also emailed a complaint to Town Administrator Richard LaFond and spoke with some members of the Board of Selectmen. Belbin is requesting Rick LaFond begin proceedings for the removal of Nauen and Gray from their appointed positions.

Nauen is apparently in a race to the bottom with former selectmen Frank Casey to see who can achieve the most inappropriate public comments. Nauens comment proves you don’t need to remove your trousers to make an A-Hole of yourself.
