

The Dewhurts Challenge

It seems Steven Dewhurst may have an anger management problem. The husband of Sarah Hewins PhD. Town Selectman/ Conservation Agent may need some help from a “qualified Doctor” to quell his aggressive tendencies or he can just call her from the next room.

“you can usually find me at USA Fitness mid-afternoons on Tuesdays and Fridays. I’m the middle-aged gentleman who’s a little on the small side, usually wearing a Carver Wrestling sweatshirt and carrying boxing gloves. I’ll look forward to seeing you there, to talk or whatever.”

Qualified challengers may meet him near the rest of the dumbbells. Good luck telling which dumbbell is Stevie.
